FOREWORD

This, the Trojanette, has been published to keep alive in the memories of M. H. S. students the spirit and traditions of our high school.

Every phase of it, our classes, our athletics, our chorus, our band, our student council, and our literary staffs are portrayed in these pages. May they, in future years, recall to mind our glorious high school days.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On the bright sunny morning of Sept. 3, 'way back in 1928, forty seven very intelligent looking boys and girls marched shyly into Miss Velma Tusing's room. These boys and girls later became known as the Class of 1940. We liked Miss Tusing so well that we stayed in her room for the rest of the year.

When we got as far as Mrs. Hurd's room, Bill Coy and Elizabeth Orn joined us. In Mrs. Anglin's room Dale Wuthrich entered our class.

In 1934 we returned to our dear Alma Mater feeling much older and very important. This was to be our first year in the assembly. We elected Edna Hollar as our president. We selected blue and gold as our colors and blue and yellow violets as our class flowers. We chose "Forward ever, backward never" as our motto. At this point Harry Michael joined us in our struggle to get an education.

Freshman Class--Alice Grubb and John Bryan entered our class. Frank Beer was our president.

Sophomore Class--Eleanor Kuhn, Dorothy Mathews, Willene Rapp and Dick Martin joined us. Mary Hover came back to stay. John Bryan was elected president.

Junior Class--Doris Galvin and Leona Poe became members of our class, and Harry Michael was president.

Senior Class-Our fourth and final year of high school finds our class with two new members, Edwin Sprunger and Warren Dausman. John Bryan was again elected as head of our class. Our senior year has been a very busy one, and now as we prepare to leave M. H. S. we are reminded of the good times we have had with our fellow students and underclassmen. We are grateful to the faculty for so patiently assisting us in preparing our future life.

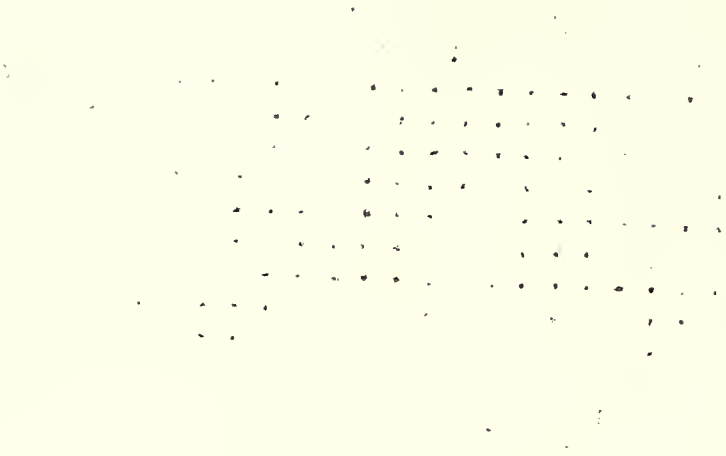
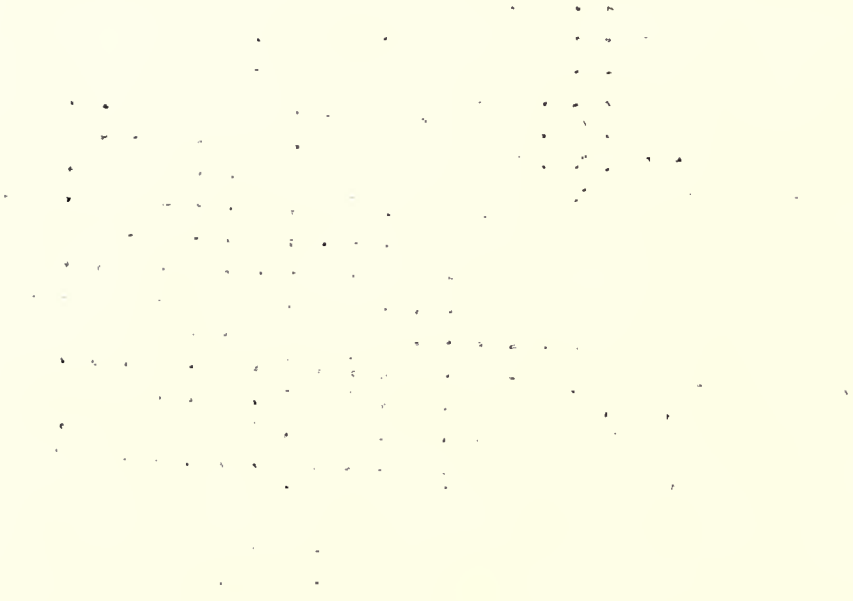
----Director, Mr. Hiatt





The Alumni Asscciation of Milford High School met Saturday evening, March 23, at 6:30 P. M. in the Community Building. Thirty-five seniors were guests of the banquet and a dance afterward.

JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION OF '40

The junior class entertained the seniors and the faculty by taking them to Spring Mill State Park on Saturday, April 6, to spend the day. On the return trip the group stopped in Peru where a banquet was enjoyed. A short program was given by the juniors, and the group returned to Milford with many memories of an enjoyable day.

BACCALAUREATE

The Baccalaureate services for the graduates of 1940 was held in the Community Building, Sunday evening, April 21, at 7:30 o'clock. Reverend Walter Krider was the speaker.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Thirty-five seniors graduated from Milford High School on Friday evening, April 26, at 8:00 P. M. Judge Fred G. Bale of Westerville, Ohio, gave the address. This was the largest class to be graduated in the history of Milford High School.

GRADUATION

Gone are the days of equation, translations,
Verbs, and infinitives, Caesar and Rome,
Gone are those days when we felt so mistreated
'Cause evenings found us o'er text books, at home.

Now that the time of departure has reached us,
Now that we come to that long-looked-for day,
Now when we find we can "skip school" forever,
We have a sudden, deep yearning to stay.

We realize that we've liked school immensely
Even when algebra puzzled us most,
We are quite proud of our knowledge of grammar,
Studies we dreaded, now cause us to boast.

Yes, we are leaving, and we feel reluctant.
Our teachers have been such a help to us, too.
Our great Milford High School, we honor, salute you!
Our fair Milford High School, we're grateful to you!

------Mary Helen Stuckman

CLASS WILL

I, Dick Brumbaugh, will my important business (?) trips to New Paris to Willis Wuthrich.

APRIL 26, 1940

We have waited and have longed for this one great day of all;
But now that it is near us, we pensively recall
The happy days of high school, we have loved them every one.
We'll miss each day of these four years,
We're sorry they are done.
But still there is the Future,
The great unknown, ahead,
And with our sadder dreams of past
Another thought is wed.
The world is ours to master,
This can be our aim,
And on the base that high school built
We'll achieve our fame.

HISTORY OF THE JUNIOR CLASS

The Class of '41 entered Junior High School feeling very important, especially when Mr. Young told us we could elect officers to preside over our class.

In the eighth grade we became restless (due to the same old routine work). Our president, Hilda Dippon, seeing that something had to be done about it, gave us a party at her home. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Freshmen!!

How we had looked forward so long to really being in high school and showing those dignified seniors that we were really growing up at last. This year we enjoyed a picnic at the home of Betty Philips, a treasure hunt at Lorabel Ferverda's, and a bingo party at Mary Clawson's.

During our sophomore year of school, to our disappointment, we had several members withdraw from our class. Our class party was held in the gymnasium--volley ball, bingo, and dancing were enjoyed.

Slaving Juniors!!!

Don't misinterpret the title for when they call us that they don't have reference to books. This year we met with a defeat in the Professor Quiz Contest with the seniors. We presented for our Junior Class Play a three-act comedy, "He Landed from London", directed by Miss Gatke, our class sponsor. We are trying to make our reception something the seniors and faculty will not forget. That's how we get the name "Slaving Juniors".

We now have 27 members in our class and we hope we have that number when we graduate next spring.

CHORUS

The Milford High School Chorus was organized by Miss McLaughlin the second year after she began teaching music in the school, and she has been its director during the several years of its existence. From its ranks have come many outstanding boys' quartets, girls' quartets, and at one time a girls' sextet which sang four consecutive summers at Winona Lake. It has presented nine operettas, one cantata, and twenty-one concerts, and in addition has assisted at several events given by the school, churches, and other organizations. It usually has about forty members.

BAND

The present enrollment of the band is forty members and four baton twirlers. There is also an equal number of beginners.

The band plays at all home basket ball games. On an average of three or four games a year the band performs novel marching maneuvers besides forming letters of the visiting team and home team. They played and marched at the Warsaw Fair and also gave a concert at Leesburg to dedicate the new gymnasium.

In the past year the band has given two concerts: one, the last of November, and the other, the first of March.

The band is especially proud of their new uniforms that were purchased in the spring of 1939, for thirty-nine members and one drum major.

Last summer the band continued their study throughout the summer months with private instructions and rehearsals each week. They gave a concert each Wednesday night of the week for ten weeks. Plans are being made to continue this summer.

Last year Edna Hollar won first division in the National Piano Contest. This year there are six solo contestants entering the solo contests at Berne, Indiana. The band is also entering the Class C Division Contest, April 20th, at Huntington.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES OF CLASS OF '40

In the freshman year the Class of '40 enjoyed a trip to Chicago. Accompanied by Mr. Ralston, we visited the Field's Museum and Shedd's Aquarium.

In the sophomore year we had the privilege of holding a Hallowe'en party at the old gravelpit near the home of Opal Zimmerman. As sophomores we were quite elated over the play entitled "The Little Wife", which we presented as an assembly program under the direction of Mr. Judkins.

In the junior year the Class of '40 held a gift exchange in the commercial room. While many outstanding gifts were received many were not so practical! On March 24, under the direction of Mr. Hiatt, we enjoyed a class party in the gym.

HIGH SCHOOL PARTY 1940

The Milford High School Party was held Friday evening March 15, with about 20 from each class present. Contests were held to determine who had the biggest appetite in high school and who had the largest mouth. Ren Clark and John Bryan had the largest appetite and the largest mouth, respectively. Everyone present enjoyed playing "Happy is the Farmer", "Three Deep", and "Musical Chair". A balloon contest and several tug-of-war contests were held between classes. Delicious refreshments were served under the direction of Miss Gatke.

JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION 1939

The juniors entertained the seniors Tuesday, April 25, 1939 at the Tavern Hotel at Lake Wawasee at 6:00 P. M. The tables were decorated with red and white carnations. The program consisted of music by the junior sextet; welcome by the junior class president, Harry Michael; response by the senior class president, John Vanderveer, Jr.; music by the clarinet trio; and a vocal solo, "Waterboy" by Richard Martin. John Bryan acted as toastmaster and the speaker of the evening was Miss McLaughlin, who gave a talk on "This and That". Later all enjoyed "The Three Musketeers"at the Pickwick Theatre.

SCHOOL EXHIBIT 1939

The school exhibit was held again this year to display the work of the students. In the typing room typing tests were being given. Physics experiments were displayed in the science room. After all had been through the rooms, they gathered in the gymnasium for an athletic exhibition by the physical training classes, and application of bandages by the safety class. A puppet show, "Cinderella", by the eighth grade art class concluded the exhibit.

VARSITY

SECOND TEAM

Left to Right, [illegible], [illegible] Victor [illegible], [illegible] Clark, [illegible] Standing [illegible], [illegible], [illegible]n, [illegible] Price, [illegible], [illegible], [illegible]en Beer, [illegible]bert [illegible]rown.

PERSONNEL OF THE VARSITY

The honor of being captain was divided among four members of the team this year.

Richard "Dick" Brumbaugh was without a doubt the fastest man on the team. The speed of this scrappy little forward made it possible for him to break up many of the opposing teams' plays and steal their passes. He has served three years on the varsity, '38, '39, and '40.

George "Hank" Hartter, our center, was a very useful man to have around. Hank was especially good on rebounds and under-the-basket shots. His work on defense was also good. He saw service on the varsity in '38, '39, and '40.

Harold "Did" Kaiser, our sharp shooting guard, was high point man this year. "Did" seemed to have a knack for hitting those long ones from around the center of the floor. He was a member of the varsity in '38, '39, and '40.

John Bryan, our other scrappy forward showed plenty of speed and a good head in floor work. John was forced to the bench because of a knee injury sustained in the second Syracuse game. His services were missed very much. He saw service with the varsities of '38, '39, and '40.

Harry Michael, our hard-driving substitute guard, saw two years service on the squad. Harry didn't try out for basketball until he was a junior, but worked hard and really came into his own during the sectional tournament.

William "Bill" Coy was a valuable substitute to have around. He showed this in the New Paris game. Bill had a good scoring average. When he shot, it usually counted. He played with the varsity in '39, and '40.

Willis "Bargain" Wuthrich has another year before him. His chief characteristics on the floor are plenty of speed and a good eye for the basket.

Fern Traster will be the chief rebound man next year. He showed good promise this year. Good training on the part of these two boys will go a long way toward putting them out in front next year.

SECTIONAL TOURNEY

March 1, 9 a.m.--The game of all games was the Milford-Syracuse game in the sectional tourney. Although the Trojans were rated as the underdogs with a very small chance of winning, they fought the county champions to a standstill. The teams were evenly matched and the game was close throughout, Syracuse led at the half with a two point margin, but the Trojans came back the second half, fighting desperately and finally taking the lead in the last quarter and holding it until the gun cracked.

March 1, 8 p.m.--The fighting Trojans seemed to have given everything they had in their game with Syracuse. Although leading at the half by one point, the Trojans were unsuccessful in keeping the Sidney boys quieted down and finally succumbed to their ceasing attack.

Nov. 3--Milford opened the 1939-40 season by playing Mentone at Milford. This proved to be one of the close games of the season, the score being tied at the half. The last half was played on a nip and tuck basis, but as Mentone contributed the last field goal, they took the decision.
Dec. 1--The Trojans registered a thrilling win over New Paris. The fans were on their feet and shouting most of the game. The playing ability of both teams was outstanding, but Milford was able to pull the game out of the fire with only thirty seconds left to play on a basket by Coy.
Jan. 12--The tragic game of the season was the Milford-Syracuse game played at Milford. After holding a 24 to 17 lead on Syracuse at the half, the Trojans experiences two accidents, both of which proved fatal to Milford's victory. Kaiser was knocked out and Bryan's knee injury forced him out of the game at the half.
Jan. 26--The Trojans pulled themselves out of a bad slump by defeating a powerful Wakarusa team. This was the first time that a Milford team has ever won a game from Wakarusa at Wakarusa.

Milford showed great power throughout the season when they played teams that were rated as better than themselves. Had they been able to play the brand of ball all season that they played during those few games they would have had a successful season.

REWARDS OF ATHLETICS

When a game is played for the sheer fun of playing it; when it is played whole heartedly and with abandonment, the physical, mental and social rewards are almost beyond calculation. Among the personal rewards of faithful athletic competition there are some that are pleasant, perhaps, but incidental, and there are others that are certain. There is an intense personal satisfaction in a clean victory, and the feeling of complete joy and satisfaction that comes when we know the cheering of the crowd is in honest and heartfelt admiration, can hardly be surpassed. There are, of course, a great many individuals who, by lack of training or by disinclination, have no love for the finer things of life. They are contest with blunted or discolored rewards. Nevertheless, if athletic competition is to stay in our national life we must look again to the fine, clean feeling that comes with a victory honorably and humbly won. Much the same feeling may go with a defeat honorably suffered.

The personal rewards that are more essential are the ones that are earned by hard play, painful bumps, and heart-breaking defeats. But there is also a satisfaction that comes from knowing that one's habits of cool-headedness, fair play, perseverance, and sportsmanship have stood the test of actual combat. No man knows what he is really worth until he has faced a situation that will bring out of him every capacity he has. It is easy to weaken under pain and fatigue, to retaliate in anger and to slump under apparent defeat. There is no other place, save in war, where a man may learn the lesson of responding to fatigue by the will to win, of responding to defeat by a determination to play hard to the bitter end. The comfort that comes to anyone when he knows that he has conquered pain, fatigue, and defeat is a feeling that he can carry over into all his later life. A healthy society cannot exist on weak, unfair, and untrained individuals.

Bookstore Clerk: "This book will do half your work for you."

Dumb Sophomore: "Fine, I'll take two of 'em."

*****

Aggravated Prof: "Listen here, young man, are you the teacher of this class?"

Student: "No, sir, I am not."

Prof: "Then don't talk like an idiot!"

*****

Mr. Young: "Harold, will you tell me why you look at your watch so often?"

Kaiser: "Yes, sir. I was afraid you wouldn't have time to finish your interesting speech."

*****

Teacher: "A fool can ask more questions than a wise man can answer."

Cory: "Then no wonder I flunked!"

*****

Miss McL: "Can anyone define etiquette?"

Bill C: "I can. Etiquette is the noise you don't make when you eat soup."

*****

Then there's the one about the boy who, when his teacher had just finished putting a patch on his pants said, "Thank you, teacher. I hope I can do the same for you someday."

"A woman can make a fool out of you in ten minutes."

"Ah, yes, but think of those ten minutes!"

*****

Teacher: "I have went, that is wrong isn't it?"

Student: "Yes, sir."

Teacher: "Why is it wrong?"

Student: "Because you ain't went yet."

*****

Student: "I've added up the sum 10 times, sir."

Prof: "Very fine."

Student: "And here are the ten answers."

*****

Teacher: "How long can a person live without brains?"

Student: "I don't know. How old are you?"

*****

A school teacher was cashing her monthly pay check at the bank. The teller apologized for giving her old money, saying, "I hope you are not afraid of microbes."

"Not at all," replied the school teacher. "No microbes could live on my salary."

*****

Mr. Young (in middle of joke): "Have I told the class this one before?"

Class (in chorus): "Yes!"

Mr. Young: "Good. You will probably understand it this time."

A small boy, leading a donkey, passed by an army camp. A couple of soldiers wanted to have some fun with the lad. "What are you holding on to your brother so tight for, sonny?"

"So he won't join the army," he replied.

*****

Mother: "Well, what did your father say when you told him you wrecked his new car?"

Son: "Shall I leave out swear words?"

Mother: "Yes, certainly."
Son: "He didn't say a word."

*****

John B: "I'd face death for you."

Laura B: "Why did you run from that dog?"

John: "It wasn't dead."

*****

There is usually one reason why a man buys, but with a woman it might be any one of ten (so they say)--

1. Because her husband says she can't have it.
2. Because it will make her look thin.
3. Because it's on sale.
4. Because it comes from Paris.
5. Because her neighbors can't afford it.
6. Because she can't afford it.
7. Because nobody has one
8. Because everybody has one.
9. Because it's different
10. BECAUSE . . . .

Girl: "I have broken my glasses. Will I have to be examined all over again?"

Optician: "No, only your eyes.

*****

"How did the wedding come off?"

"Fine until the minister asked the bride if she would obey her husband."

"What happened then?"

"She replied: 'Do you think I'm crazy?' and the groom, who was in sort of a daze, replied: 'I do'."

*****

The absent-minded professor called his biology class to order shortly after the lunch hour. "Our special work this afternoon," he said, "will be cutting up and inspecting the inward workings of a frog. I have a frog in my pocket here to be used as a specimen."

He reached into his pocket and pulled out a paper sack, shook its contents out on the table, and out rolled a nice looking sandwich. The professor looked at it, perplexed, scratched his head, and muttered: "That's funny, I distinctly remember eating my lunch."

*****

A man was begging from door to door. As he came up on Mrs. Jones' porch, a lady announcer on the radio said, "I can't give you anything but love." The man saw Mrs. Jones looking at him and ran for the street without even ringing the bell.
